RE: MUR 5938

Dear Mr. Jordan:

As treasurer of the Julia Carson for Congress Committee I am submitting a response to the allegations made in the above referenced MUR. This response may be supplemented with additional documents and information if necessary. The Congresswoman has been on official leave from the U.S. House of Representatives during the past several weeks due to medical reasons.

The complainant has submitted what is apparently an endorsement of Representative Julia Carson and several other candidates for public office in the form of a paid advertisement in a local circular prior to the 2006 Primary Election. The complainant seems to make the allegation that the endorsement may have been coordinated with the campaign committee and is an in-kind contribution.

At this time the Committee has not been able to determine that any staff or campaign representative participated in the content, placement or payment of the endorsement. There is no language or other indication in the text that suggests coordination with the campaign committee. I would like to ask that this complaint against the Committee, and me as treasurer, be dismissed with no further action as the complainant, an opponent of Representative Carson in the primary election, has failed to provide a basis for his allegations other than speculation.

If you require further information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

by Whitney Burns
